The background is a composite image. On the left, there is a map of Mexico with the word 'MEXICO' written across it. In the center, there is a stylized illustration of a Native American man with a halo, wearing a feathered headdress. On the right, there is a close-up of a coyote's face. The text is overlaid on this background.

El Santo Coyote is the legend of a great warrior from one of the Indian tribes in Jalisco, Mexico. Legend has it that where this warrior went he had a pack of coyotes that followed him, protecting and looking out for him as if they were his guardian angels. Legend also has it that El Santo Coyote had a greater gift, one that others in the tribe didn't understand, which was the ability to speak with these coyotes. The coyotes didn't only protect him in many battles, but also guided him to save his people. The coyotes shared their wisdom and connected him with the earth. He eventually became the chief of his tribe, leading his people to a greater place of Peace, Beauty, and Freedom. The same dream that El Santo Coyote had for his people, the Toll family tries to share with every visitor that walks through our doors.

El Santo Coyote es la leyenda de un gran guerrero de una de las tribus indias de Jalisco, México. Cuenta la leyenda que donde este guerrero fuese una manada de coyotes lo seguía protegiendo al guerrero como si fueran sus ángeles guardianes. También cuenta la leyenda que El Santo Coyote tenía un don mayor que otros en la tribu no comprendían, el don de hablar con los coyotes. Estos coyotes no sólo le protegieron en muchas batallas, si no que también lo guiaron para salvar a su pueblo. Los coyotes compartían su sabiduría y lo conectaban con la madre tierra. Eventualmente El Santo Coyote se convirtió en el jefe de su tribu llevando su pueblo hacia un lugar mejor de Paz, Belleza y Libertad. El mismo sueño que tuvo El Santo Coyote para su pueblo, la familia Toll intenta compartir con cada persona que entra por nuestras puertas.
